A Note for Play Protectors

 Our kids are the experts. This drawing isn't just art; it's qualitative data that shows what our children need to thrive. When we restrict play, we restrict the very things they are dreaming of.

Take Action with this Sheet:

 Validate: Ask your child to tell you about their drawing. What are they doing? How does it make their brain feel?

 Snap & Tag: Take a clear photo of this masterpiece and post it on social media. Tag your LAUSD Board Member and use #ProtectPlayLA

 The "Paper Trail": Bring this drawing to your next PTA or School Site Council meeting.
